Appointment without Approval of ACC

2075. SHRIMATI SARALA MAHESWARI: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to refer to the reply given to the Unstarred Question 4614 dated 20th August, 1992 and state:

(a) what were the circumstances and reasons which forced the IDPL management even to contravene the Prime Minister's orders of February, 1983 by giving extension|re-employment to S|S Suri and Pai;

(b) whether Prime Minister's or ACC's approval was taken in both of these cases, when there was a complete ban on extension|re-appointment in public undertakings as per the directives of February 1983 of Prime Minister; with reasons therefor; and

(c) whether no qualified and experienced employees were available in the company for the above two posts at the time of giving extension|re-employment to them, together with the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CHEMICALS AND FERTILIZERS (SHRI EDUARDO FALEIRO): (a) to (c) The guidelines issued in February, 1983 were primarily intended to restrict extension|re-employments beyond the age of superannuation to only exceptional and justified circumstances. The IDPL management had given re-appointment/extension to two of its Officers, keeping in view the interest of the Organisation and also the fact that immediate suitable replacement for these officers from within the Organisation were not available.
